

SALTS IF BACKACHE AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink lots of water and stop eating meat for a while if your bladder troubles you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and lousy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; remedy is to take body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach aches, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water acids and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

IF FEVERISH, BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED, GIVE FRUIT LAXATIVE AT ONCE.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tonight he coughs, has a sore sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again.

Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy. Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," and get directions for babies, children, or adults and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember the "California Syrup of Figs" Company, San Francisco, has sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Syrup of Figs" Company, San Francisco, back with contempt any other fig syrup.

Lieut. Ira A. Warren Brings Good News From Guardmen—New Company to Form Thursday—Four Men Implicated in Duffey Case May Be Brought Into Superior Court—Lieut. A. H. Warren Leaving For Panama.

Lieutenant Ira A. Warren of the Thirtieth company was in town on Tuesday on brief leave of absence from his station at Cos Cob. He returned to duty Tuesday afternoon.

No arrangements for leave for the men have been made yet, but it is expected that this will be attended to soon, so that enlisted men may occasionally return to their homes here.

Lieutenant Warren reports the men as fit and doing steady service and that all are getting along well. All the stations are close to shore, where fishing and clamming and other diversions await the men when the season opens. The men do four hours of guard duty and eight hours of duty out of every 24 hours. The squads are divided into three shifts. The pay of the men is more than many men have supposed. They get at least two dollars a day and corporals and sergeants in proportion.

On account of this fact it is expected that the enlisted men are allowed something extra each day if they have a special rating as gun point, runner, plotters, etc., in accordance with the regulations for the Coast Artillery corps. Then there is a dollar a day allowance for rations for each man. As the men get paid for seven days a week their earnings are better than those of many men here.

The company is now being paid by the state. Should the organization be mustered into the federal service, the pay then would be as in the regular army.

CHANCE TO SHOW PATRIOTISM. More to Proposed Military Company Than Merely Playing Soldiers.

Thursday evening is announced as the time for bringing together at the state armory the men of the borough and surrounding places who are interested in receiving military instruction, under Captain E. L. Darbie.

On account of this fact it is expected that the enlisted men are allowed something extra each day if they have a special rating as gun point, runner, plotters, etc., in accordance with the regulations for the Coast Artillery corps. Then there is a dollar a day allowance for rations for each man. As the men get paid for seven days a week their earnings are better than those of many men here.

Those who go into the company will not be disappointed if they find that they are going to be called upon by Captain Darbie to do serious training work. Discipline will be as rigid as in the enlisted service. Only under such a system will it be possible to get the desired results. The men will be required to get down to their work in a serious and studious way and there will be no play time during drill time. This is being made understood by those who go in for the training.

This doesn't mean that hardships are to be attached to the requirements—just that the work will not be a burlesque on military training, but the real thing, of value to all who take it.

May Be Brought Into Superior Court. An effort may be made, it was said here Tuesday, to have the cases of the four men arrested and bound over to the superior court to answer to charges that followed the revelations of Anna Duffey last week, brought into the superior court at this time, on bench warrants. Otherwise the men will have to await the May term of court for the final disposition of their cases.

Sailing For Panama. Lieutenant Albert H. Warren, U. S. A., who has been stationed at Fort A. A. has been ordered to sail for Panama to visit with his mother, Mrs. William Warren and other relatives. Lieut. Warren is expected to return to New York for Panama, where he will be stationed for probably two years. This service will be the first that Lieut. Warren will have performed outside the United States since his graduation from West Point.

Grand Jury Returns True Bill, Indicting Leon A. Gilman of Williamantic For Murder in First Degree—Frank Muzynski Given Prison Sentence—Divorces For Two Wives and One Plaintiff in Lincoln-Brown Suit.

A grand jury in the superior court here Tuesday, Judge Gardiner Greene presiding, returned a true bill indicting Leon A. Gilman of Williamantic for murder in the first degree. The jurors were charged with their duties and left the court room at 2:15, returning to report at 12:45.

Late State Attorney Charles E. Searle said that Gilman's trial will be started next Tuesday morning.

The witnesses heard by the grand jury were Coroner Arthur G. Hill of Williamantic, Dr. Louis I. Moore, Williamantic, Nelson J. Gilman, father of Edward Gilman, one of the men that the accused is charged with murdering, and Chief Richmond of the Williamantic police.

The grand jury was made up of Herbert S. Brown, Ashford; Charles H. Blake, Brooklyn; Edward Baker, Canterbury; E. M. Welles, Putnam; M. Tatem, Eastford; Frank A. Phillips, Hampton; Ralph C. Young, Danielson; W. E. Labelle, Dayville; John Tucker, Putnam; Charles O. Thompson (foreman), Pomfret; Dr. Edward F. Perry, Joseph Plains, Putnam; Clarence E. Perry, Scotland; Amory J. Koblar, Sterling; Marcus A. Novell, Thompson; David E. Ahern, Putnam; Frank Foss, Winton; Charles N. Perrin, Woodstock.

The accused was not in court, remaining at Brooklyn jail, where he has been held since soon after he was charged and bound over from the police to the federal service, after the shooting of his cousin, Edwin Gilman, and his grandfather, Nelson Gilman, at Williamantic, November 26.

PRISON FOR MUZYNSKI. Youth of Twenty Who Shot Two Men at Mousup Given Not Less Than One Year.

During the proceedings of the day, Frank Muzynski, of the town of Plainfield, pleaded guilty to assaulting Thomas Hoskold with intent to kill. His pleading guilty was preceded by conferences between his attorney, Charles L. Torrey and State Attorney Charles E. Searle. Judge Greene sentenced Muzynski to serve not less than one nor more than two years in the state prison. The young man is 20 years of age.

The crime for which Muzynski is to be imprisoned was committed in Mousup on October 10, 1916, when the young man, in a drunken frenzy, shot and killed Thomas Hoskold, who was twice wounded, one bullet entering his cheek and lodging in his jaw, the other striking into Hoskold's shoulder, and Henri Lamoureux, who was also badly wounded. Muzynski pleaded only to the assault on Hoskold.

In asking for sentence, Mr. Searle said to the court that there has been too much reckless shooting in Connecticut and elsewhere and to much disregard for the sanctity of human life. The attorney stated that he did not believe that the prisoner should be sent to the reformatory but rather should get a state prison sentence, though he did not care to recommend as to the severity.

Judge Greene said the crime with which Muzynski was charged was a very serious one, that the prisoner had shot two men and had escaped killing the only by great good luck. Had the men been killed the circumstances attending the crime would have made it look like first degree murder.

Judge Greene said he understood that Muzynski, aside from shooting the affair, has enjoyed a good reputation up to the time that the shooting occurred. This would be taken into consideration in imposing sentence.

Fred Bradley on Probation. Another case on the criminal list that was disposed of was that of Fred Bradley, of the town of Putnam, who was found guilty of connection with the taking of meat of the carcass of a cow in the town of Putnam, February 16. Judge Greene, upon recommendation of State Attorney Searle, sentenced Bradley to serve six months in jail and to pay costs of prosecution, but the sentence was suspended and Bradley placed under the care of Judge Oscar Atwood, of Brooklyn, as probation officer, and ordered to report to him regularly.

In explaining the case to Judge Greene, Mr. Searle said that Bradley had made full restitution to Clarence M. Daggett of the town of Plainfield for the value of the animal that featured in the case, and that his investigation of Philip Foster and him to the list of bail and disappeared from this section was the chief culprit. Attorney E. L. Darbie, Danielson, was counsel for Bradley.

Nick Kissel Fined. Nick Kissel, Williamantic, pleaded guilty to assault on Brooklyn, and was fined $25 and costs. One count against him was dropped.

of the Shore Line Electric Railway has been hit by a wave of illness that has taken a number of its regular runs. W. A. Colwell, S. H. Watson and Ray Whipple have had to give up their work temporarily on account of illness. Conductor Jesse Childs has returned from a Worcester hospital, having undergone an operation, and is now recovering at his home in Dayville. Conductor Edward Clements was called out with the Thirtieth company, still further shortening the available men for car service. To add to the list of spring troubles, Barn Foreman William Carver is also ill at his home.

Divorces For Mrs. Annie Renick. Three uncontested divorces were granted at Tuesday's session of court. Annie Renick of this city was given a divorce from Samuel Renick, engaged here in business, by Judge Greene.

She testified that they were married June 3, 1914. Three weeks later, she said, he began to abuse her. Then he gave her permission to bring to their home a child of hers by a former marriage. After that time, she said, the family dissensions became frequent and severe and Renick, she said, finally took to beating her. After one of Renick's bad days, he was arrested and sentenced to jail.

Later there was a reconciliation upon Renick's promise to do better. His violent ways again came into prominence, however, Mrs. Renick testified, and she eventually beat her so upon one occasion that she was injured and later had to undergo a surgical operation. After that time, she said, the court a scarred wrist as the result of her experiences with Renick.

Abraham Levine acted as interpreter for Mrs. Renick and also testified on her behalf. Court records of the city of Putnam were introduced to show Renick's record as charged in the divorce proceedings.

The divorce was granted on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Renick gave the custody of her child and the right to change her name to her first husband, deceased—Lina.

Mrs. Eleanor L. Enz Was Deserted. On the ground of desertion Mrs. Eleanor L. Enz of South Woodstock was given a divorce from Walter Enz, who disappeared from Woodstock about three years ago and has not since been seen nor heard from. The couple married at East Woodstock, on March 12, 1908, and immediately left for Switzerland, of which country Enz was a native. Mrs. Enz testified she lived there for a year with Enz's parents, but that he never returned and did nothing for her support. In the spring of 1909, she borrowed enough money to return to the country, her father later making the loan good.

In 1912 Enz returned here, but made no effort to see his wife. About three years ago, after he reported that he arranged to buy a store business in Woodstock, she returned to the country to draw money from the savings bank to complete his business deal and having undergone an operation, she was greatly distressed.

Mrs. Frances Barstow, mother of Mrs. Enz, Julius Rittenhouse and Charles E. Bugbee, all of Woodstock, testified that Enz had been in Rittenhouse, who knew Enz in the old country, said that the defendant was a hard drinker there. The decree was granted on the ground of desertion and the plaintiff given the right to change her name to Eleanor L. Barstow.

Geo. E. Paine's Wife Left Him For Affinity.

George E. Paine of the Green Hollow road, Killingly, was given a divorce from Mary A. Paine, Washington, R. L. whom he married August 17, 1911. Desertion was alleged as having taken place in March, 1913. Witness Paine left her husband without cause and she is now keeping house for James Johnson, of Washington, R. I., a man who called on her while Mrs. Paine was in the city.

Attorney Charles L. Torrey was counsel for the plaintiff in the three divorces cases tried here Tuesday.

Court adjourned until Thursday morning at 10:30.

DECISION FOR ADMINISTRATION. Court Finds For M. E. Lincoln in Case Against J. P. Brown, Jr.

Judge Greene, in the superior court here Tuesday, handed down a decision for the plaintiff to recover $250 in the case of M. Eugene Lincoln, administrator, vs. James P. Brown, Jr. This case was tried here last week, the plaintiff securing to secure the conversion to the intestate estate of James P. Brown, formerly of Williamantic, a diamond ring that recently has been in the possession of James P. Brown, Jr.

Will Never Be Without This Simple Laxative

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Relieved Her Baby When Nothing Else Would

Little Max Pendergrast is now four years old, and a fine, healthy boy. When but a tiny baby, in fact almost from birth, he suffered a great deal from constipation. His mother, Mrs. Carl W. Pendergrast, Red Key, Ind., heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, obtained a bottle of it from the drug store, and with it was able to quickly correct this condition.

Mrs. Pendergrast says Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has saved them from calling the doctor many times, and that she will never be without a bottle of it in the house to use when needed. She found it equally effective as a laxative for herself and other members of the family.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple ingredients, and in action and positive in effect. It does not grip or strain, and contains no opiate or narcotic drug. It is the ideal family laxative, mild and pleasant for baby, yet acting quickly on the strongest constitution.
